EAT & DRINK

Breakfast at Cambria Coffee Roasting Company

Grab a coffee and an olallieberry muffin (or any other delicious baked treat) at any point during your stay—there's an upstairs balcony that's perfect for scoping out the local motorcycle and automobile scene. The gourmet and specialty coffees offered at this quaint, local hotspot are roasted in-house, meaning you've likely never tasted fresher brews.

Lunch at Boni's Tacos

This place may be described as a “hole in the wall,” but everyone knows that's where to go for the best tacos. Boni's is one of Cambria's best-kept secrets. Customers rave about the carne asada and al pastor, but try the unique potato taquitos, too.

Dinner at Robin's Restaurant

Robin's is known for its creative international fare, farm-to-table selections, and charming atmosphere. It's located in a historic building, but you'll likely be distracted by the incredible food and wine selection.

Dessert at Linn's Easy as Pie Café

It wouldn't be a trip to Cambria without some famous olallieberry pie. This local staple is beyond delicious, but honestly, we won't fault you for trying some of Linn's other delicious olallieberry desserts!

Drinks at Mozzi's Saloon

Established in 1866, Mozzi's Saloon is the one and only historic biker bar in Cambria. Completely remodeled in 2007 with the original ambiance of yesteryear—full bar, live music, pool and snooker tables, friendly atmosphere, and bar menu—Mozzi's has it all.
