Staying Socially Distant in Cambria, CA
Cambria is open and ready to welcome guests

CAMBRIA, Calif. (June 1, 2020) — Cambria is open and ready to welcome visitors for a relaxing and safe visit to our charming little oasis on the Central Coast. It is more important than ever to follow CDC guidelines for responsible and respectful travel, so we have out together this #SafeTravels guide to help those planning their next vacation to Cambria.

Lodging properties in Cambria have introduced new cleaning protocols for public spaces and guest rooms. New regulations include lodging properties that will not provide snacks or beverages in rooms, no extra pillows or towels, intentional vacancy periods after guest stays, and limited use of shared amenities. Lodging properties are taking every measure to keep guests and staff safe during the pandemic.

Restaurants in the area are also doing their part to keep guests safe, and many remain open for socially distant outdoor dining or take-out options. Hidden Kitchen is the perfect destination for those who are seeking excellent breakfast smoothies or waffles to-go. Robin's Restaurant is the ideal place to taste some international cuisine. Finally, for those dessert lovers, head over to Linn's Restaurant for some mini olallieberry pie.

After enjoying lunch or dinner, go for a walk on the beaches in Cambria, which are all still open; however, visitors are encouraged to maintain social distancing guidelines. Moonstone Beach offers plenty of activities, from kayaking and tide pooling to strolling on the boardwalk and hunting for moonstones. This breathtaking beach provides an unforgettable experience. Leffingwell Landing offers easy access to the rocky tide pools that are home to thousands of marine species.

If hiking trails and bike paths are more your speed, be sure to visit Fiscalini Ranch Preserve. The 430-acre preserve is packed with miles of hiking and biking trails, including the scenic Bluff Trail that runs along the rocky shoreline, offering dramatic ocean views from the 400-foot-high ridge that overlooks the Pacific.

Driving to Cambria can also be quite a delightful experience. Head north on Highway 1 to Gorda or Big Sur, or south to Cayucos or Avila Beach. Head east from Cambria to Santa Rosa Creek Road for winding roads and hills, or east on Highway 46 to Paso Robles. On the drive to one of these beautiful destinations, there are many opportunities to see the Central Coast's vast wildlife.
