Get Wild in Cambria
Discover Your Wild Side in Cambria

CAMBRIA, Calif. (January 1, 2020) — Cambria is a quiet coastal hamlet, abundant with eccentric antique stores and quaint lace-edged bed and breakfasts, but there is so much more for the wild at heart. Spring is on the way and with wildflowers blooming across the Central Coast, a wild weekend getaway is just the thing to spring for. With a fresh infusion of hoteliers, winemakers, brewers, restaurateurs, fitness instructors, and artists—along with some old-school dive bar fun—Cambria has everything for the perfect weekend with your girlfriends. You just have to know where to go to find the wildflower in you.

On day one of your wildflower weekend, sip on some wine and taste some beer, rock out to live music, eat pie, and indulge. In other words, treat yourself. Use day two of your weekend to relax and renew. Eat healthy, do a little yoga, take in the beautiful natural surroundings, and meditate on a great weekend of wildflower fun. By the time you leave Cambria, you'll have had the perfect combination of wildflower fun and relaxation.

Day 1: Get wild like the flowers!

Morning:

- Stop for a steaming cup of coffee and a deliciously warm morning snack at the Cambria Coffee Roasting Company.
- Indulge in a tour of the decadent Hearst Castle.

Midday:

- Fuel up for the wild night ahead and grab a monstrous sandwich or burger at the Café on Bridge Street.

Afternoon:

- Head east through the winding hills on Santa Rosa Creek Road for fine wine tasting at Stolo Family Vineyards.
- Pick up some sweet homemade pie or jam on the farm at Linn's Fruit Bin.

Evening:

- Check into your lodging property and freshen up for a wild night out. Then, sip on an ice-cold beer at 927 Brewing Company and stop in at the Black Cat Bistro for dinner.

Night:

- Let the fun continue with drinks and dancing at Mozzi's, Cambria's historic biker bar.

Day 2: Relax, renew, and detox!

Morning:

- Clean your palette with a healthy and light breakfast at Centrally Grown.
- Then, clear your mind with a yoga class on Moonstone Beach or take a walk along the Meander Trail to enjoy nature's display of beautiful wildflowers.

Midday:

- Enjoy fresh-pressed juices, smoothies, and Instagram-worthy salads at Sandy's Deli or out-of-the-box health food options at Soto's True Earth Market.

Evening:

- Dine on light, global fare at Robin's Restaurant, followed by a walk through the village, enjoying the breeze as you window shop.

Night:

- Your detox is complete! Spend the rest of the night relaxing and fall asleep early to the calming sound of the Pacific Ocean.

No matter what you choose to do on your wildflower weekend getaway, Cambria has something for everyone. So, grab your girls, grab your wine, and get wild.
